

Make History Come Alive – Volunteer!

---

California State Parks invites friendly people who love to learn to volunteer.

Discover the stories of Sonoma State Historic Park, Mission San Francisco Solano, the Sonoma Barracks, General Vallejo's Home, the Toscano Hotel & Kitchen and the Petaluma Adobe State Historic Park.

Volunteering offers many benefits! Meet new and interesting people, enhance your public speaking skills, contribute to your community, participate in special events, and share our region's rich history.

Training sessions are free! Four training sessions are held annually, beginning on the third weekends of February, May, August, and November.

- Each training covers a different park historic site.

Registration & Training:

- Docent – 2 or 3 day training *
- Cultural Assistants, Bookstore, and Groundskeepers – learn as you go!
- All positions require registration. A criminal history background check is required for most volunteer positions.
